

Contents

1	Introduction	1
	Social work reports in child care cases	1
	Legislation and abbreviations	2
	Principles which apply in different cases	3
	Types of adoption	4
	Types of adoption agencies	5
	Curators and reporting officers	5
<hr/>
2	Types of courts and applications	6
	Courts	6
	Applications	7
<hr/>
3	Getting started – a range of issues	8
	Points to bear in mind when starting a report	8
	Ensuring accuracy	9
	More than one child	10
	What information do you need?	10
	How much detail?	11
	How many enquiries should be made?	11
	How much tracing must be done?	11
<hr/>
4	Parental responsibilities and rights (PRRs)	13
	Who automatically has PRRs for a child?	13
	How can a child’s genetic father acquire PRRs?	14
	Position of parents with PRRs in child care cases	14
	Position of fathers with no PRRs in child care cases	15
	Contacting fathers with no PRRs	16
	Tracing parents whose whereabouts are unknown	16
<hr/>
5	Disclosure issues	17
	Disclosure Scotland and what checks it provides	17

Specific checks available for those covered in court reports	18
Some other issues	19
Finally...	20
<hr/>
6 Legal and practice requirements for reports in PO and POA applications	21
Applications for permanence orders, POs and POAs	21
Amendments of POs	22
Variations of POs and POAs	23
Revocations of POs and POAs	24
Summary	25
<hr/>
7 Content and layout of reports in PO and POA applications	26
First page of the report	27
Second and subsequent pages	28
<hr/>
8 Legal and practice requirements for domestic adoptions in Scotland	37
2007 Act, s.17 – reports in agency adoptions	37
2007 Act, ss.18 and 19 – notifications and reports for non-agency adoptions	39
Information in non-agency adoption and s.59 application reports	40
Court rules for all adoption applications	41
Summary	42
<hr/>
9 Legal requirements in foreign adoptions	43
1. Intercountry adoptions	43
2. Arrangements for Scottish children to be adopted overseas	46
Summary	47
<hr/>
10 Content and layout of reports in adoption and s.59 applications	48
First page of the report	49
Second and subsequent pages	49
<hr/>
11 Legal requirements for reports when Scottish children are placed in England, Wales and Northern Ireland	62
Adoptions in England and Wales	63
Adoptions in Northern Ireland	64
SGOs in England and Wales	65
Summary	66

12 Private law cases: what the law says and content and layout of reports	67
Matrimonial Proceedings (Children) Act 1958	67
Court rules: sheriff court	68
Court rules: Court of Session	68
Content and layout of reports, and information needed	68
Timescales	71

13 What happens next, including access to and retention of reports?	72
What happens to the report?	72
All POs, POAs, adoptions and s.59 applications: sheriff court cases	72
All POs, POAs, adoptions and s.59 applications: Court of Session cases	73
Private law cases	73
Who sees reports at the time of preparation?	74
Will I be interviewed/have to give evidence?	74
Subsequent changes in circumstances	74
Retention of and access to reports after applications completed	75

14 Summary and further reading	78
Further reading	79
Court rules online	80
Legislation online	80

Appendix I
Adoption and Children (Scotland) Act 2007
Sections 14, 75, 76 and 105	81

Appendix II
Court rules in private law cases	85

Appendix III
Miscellaneous Provisions	88