
Contents

Acknowledgements	v
The author	v
Introduction	1
Overview of current situation in Scotland	1
The purpose of this guide	4
Scope of the guide	4
1 The report in context	5
Who will read the CAPR?	5
Understanding permanence	10
Likelihood of change	15
Understanding the child's needs	16
Further reading	25
2 The child's family and history	26
Introduction	26
PART ONE	29
Front sheet	29
Section 1: The child's profile	31
Section 2: Introduction to the child and their family	32
Section 3: Legal orders	33
Section 4: Parents' personalities and personal histories	33
Section 5: Parents' past and current relationship histories	41
Section 6: The child's parentage	43
Section 7: Persons with parental responsibilities and rights (PRRs) in respect of the child	43
Section 8: Family history and relationships	44
Section 9: Current circumstances of each parent	48
Section 10: Views and wishes of birth parents and any other persons holding PRRs	49
Section 11: Child's siblings and sibling relationships	50
Section 12: Multi-agency intervention offered to assist this family	53
Section 13: Exploration of the wider family and kinship networks	55
Section 14: Agency decision to proceed to permanence for this child	59

3 Understanding the child's needs	61
Introduction	61
Section 15: Consideration of the past, current and future contact arrangements for the child after placement for permanence	62
Section 16: The child and their journey through care	67
Section 17: The child's personality, current development and future needs	69
Section 18: The child's understanding, wishes and feelings regarding their future	79
Section 19: Proposal for the future family placement for the child	82
Section 20: The nature and qualities of the future family required	85
Section 21: Summary of the child's particular adoption/permanence support, other needs and adoption/permanence support plan	88
Section 22: Promoting the achievement of permanence for a child with extra needs	92
Section 23: Legal routes to permanence	93
4 Part Two and associated tools	96
Part Two	96
A. Agency documentation	98
B. Additional CAPR tools	99
5 Relinquished infants	101
Introduction	101
Preparing to complete the report	103
A. Sections 1–14: The child's family and history including the request for adoption	105
B. Sections 15–23: Understanding the child's needs and how the agency will meet these	121
6 References	130
Abbreviations	132
Appendix 1A: Ideas for areas for discussion with foster carers	133
A. The child they first met	133
B. The child now	134
C. The child's future	134
Appendix 1B: Ideas for areas for discussion with family-finding social worker	136
A. The child	136
B. The foster carers	136
C. Identifying the "right" permanent placement	136

Appendix 2: Adoption Agencies (Scotland) Regulations 2009 Schedule 1, Parts II and III	138
Part II: Information about the child	138
Part III: Information about the child's family	139
Appendix 3: Wellbeing Wheel	141
Appendix 4: Cycle of Change	142
Appendix 5: Observation checklists: what to look for in attachment and bonding	145
Appendix 6: My World Triangle	148
Appendix 7: Guidelines for staff observation, support and supervision of contact	150
Appendix 8: Permanence Order Checklist	154
Appendix 9: Adoption Agencies (Scotland) Regulations 2009	156
Schedule 2
Memorandum: Adoption of Children	156