
Contents

1 How to use this guide	1
Introduction	1
What this guide is	3
What this guide is not	4
2 Individual profile and family and environmental factors	6
Family background and early experience	7
Other significant relationships (excluding previous partners)	9
Summary of education experiences	10
Adult life – work, health and other issues	12
Any other relevant information	17
Relationships with previous partners	19
Relationships and support networks	22
Social and support network	30
The home, financial circumstances and lifestyle	33
3 Becoming adopters – the assessment of adoptive parenting	41
Motivation to adopt and expectations of placement	41
Expectations about the child/ren that the applicant hopes to adopt	45
Understanding of the needs of adopted children and adoptive parenting	47
For applicants who already have birth or adopted children	48
Foster carers adopting a child in their care	49
Previous adoption or fostering experience (see also Appendix II)	50
Identity	51
Promoting the child's cultural heritage and religious beliefs	54
Expectations of children and understanding of the lifelong nature and impact of adoption	55
Potential testamentary guardians	59
Understanding of the role of a concurrent planning/FfA carer	60
Analysis, evaluation and summary of key factors leading to the recommendation	63
4 Additional information and checklists	65
Personal reference visit	65
Issues for social workers	67
Health and safety checklist	68
Pet ownership questionnaire	68
Safer caring	69

Appendix I	70
Adoption Assessment Checklist	70
Appendix II	74
Additional areas to cover for adoption by relative carers, second-time adopters or intercountry adoption applications	74
Appendix III	79
Brief prospective adopter's reports	79
Appendix IV	81
Second opinion visits	81
Appendix V Worksheets for adopters	83
Introduction for agency	83
Introduction for adopters	83
Example of an ecomap	99
Appendix VI	100
Fostering for Adoption workbook	100